

CRIMINAL SET-ASIDE

(ADULT CASES)

A set-aside is sometimes called expungement or expunction. It means that the court record of a criminal or contempt case is sealed by the court and will not appear in official court records. You should be aware that set-aside cases can be unsealed in certain limited circumstances.

If you were a minor (under 18) at the time of the arrest or citation or were charged as a minor, use the juvenile expunction forms available here:

www.courts.oregon.gov/programs/jcip/ModelCourtForms/Pages/default.aspx

NOTE: Oregon circuit courts cannot set aside:

- a conviction for a state or municipal traffic offense
- actions brought by federal, tribal, or other state's law enforcement
- actions brought in a local court (not a Circuit Court)

If you aren't sure whether your case was or would have been brought in Circuit Court, you may need to talk to a lawyer. Court staff cannot tell you where to file or who to serve. Additional exceptions are listed at the end of this document.

CAN I ASK THE COURT TO ORDER A SET-ASIDE IN MY CASE?

You can file a Motion with the court to ask for a set-aside if you were:

- convicted of a crime or violation
- found guilty except for insanity
- charged with a crime or cited for a violation
- arrested but not charged or
- found in contempt of court

AND

- you have fully complied with and completed all elements of your sentence including restitution, post-prison supervision, and probation
- you have not been charged with or convicted of another crime (other than a motor vehicle violation) or found guilty except for insanity of any crime or for more than one violation for the years before filing your motion as listed below
- you do not have any charges pending at the time of filing and
- no other exception applies (see below for other exceptions)

BUT the following waiting periods apply: (Note that any prior set-asides granted will be counted when calculating the waiting periods below)

Waiting periods for CONVICTIONS or FINDINGS OF GUILTY EXCEPT FOR INSANITY*:

For charge of:	Years since date of conviction or release from prison:	You cannot have been charged with or convicted of a crime other than a motor vehicle violation or found guilty except for insanity for the previous:
Class B felony	7 years	7 years
Class C felony	5 years	5 years
Class A misdemeanor	3 years	3 years
Class B or C misdemeanor, violation, or finding of contempt of court	1 year	1 year

*For findings of Guilty Except for Insanity (GEI), the above timelines apply from the date of the finding, entry of judgment, or release from the jurisdiction of the Psychiatric Security Review Board (PSRB), whichever is later. If you were found GEI you remain prohibited from possessing or purchasing a firearm under federal law even if you are granted a set-aside.

Probation Revocation: If your sentence of probation was revoked, you cannot ask for a set-aside until 3 years after the date of revocation or until you are otherwise eligible under the timelines above, whichever is later

Waiting periods for ARRESTS, CHARGES, or CITATIONS that are not pursued:

- Anytime after 60 days from the date the prosecuting attorney indicates that the state will not proceed with prosecution or contempt charge

Arrests and charges for Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants (DUII) are not eligible for set-aside if charges are not pursued because you completed a diversion agreement

Waiting periods for ACQUITTALS or DISMISSED CHARGES:

- Anytime after the acquittal or dismissal

Arrests and charges for Driving Under the Influence of Intoxicants (DUII) are not eligible for set-aside if charges are not pursued because you completed a diversion agreement

HOW DO I ASK FOR A SET-ASIDE?

Fill out the Motion to Set Aside and Declaration in Support

Your case number is the same as the original case number for the case with your conviction. If you never had a court case number, leave that line blank. The court will create a new case to process your Motion.

Parties

- If you are filing about an arrest record with no charges filed:
 - YOU are the Plaintiff
 - The prosecuting attorney is the Defendant

- If you are filing for any other reason:
 - “State of Oregon” is the Plaintiff
 - YOU are the Defendant

Make 2 copies of your forms - one for your records, and one to serve on the prosecuting attorney (usually the District Attorney. Refer to your charging instrument or citation for the prosecuting attorney’s information).

IMPORTANT: You must also have your fingerprints taken on a fingerprint card (or as specified by the Department of State Police) and

- send them to the Department of State Police
- pay the fee that the department charges for a criminal record check, and
- complete the department’s Request for Set Aside form

The department will send the results to the prosecuting attorney.

Additional information is available on the department’s website:

www.oregon.gov/osp/programs/cjis/Pages/Criminal-Justice-Information-Services.aspx

WHERE DO I FILE?

File in the county where you were charged or where your citation was filed. If you were not charged, file in the circuit court for the county where charges would have been brought.

Mail a copy of the Motion and Declaration to the prosecuting attorney. Complete the Certificate of Mailing section on the copy you will file with the court and on your copy.

There is no fee to file this Motion

Go to www.courts.oregon.gov/courts/Pages/default.aspx for the location and address of each circuit court in the state. Some county District Attorneys have contact information available at www.oregonda.org/profiles-of-prosecutors-1.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

The prosecuting attorney has 120 days after you file to notify the court if they object to your Motion. If an objection is filed, the court will hold a hearing. Be sure the court always has contact information where they can reach you. If a hearing is scheduled and you do not appear, you may not be granted a set-aside.

If your request is granted the court will send copies of the Order to the necessary agencies. The record of the proceeding you asked to set aside will be sealed, meaning it will not be viewable through official court records or by court staff. Be aware that sealed records can be unsealed under certain limited circumstances. Talk to a lawyer if you are concerned about unsealing records in the future.

If your request for set-aside is granted, ORS 137.255(4) states that “upon entry of the order, the conviction, arrest, citation, charge or other proceeding [ordered set aside by the court] shall be deemed not to have occurred, and [you] may answer accordingly any questions relating to its occurrence.”
